Readings for Pentecost Sunday

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11 The Spirit arrives in driving wind and dancing flame to alight on the new church.
Psalm 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34 The Spirit of God created the world and continues to renew it with the breath of life.
2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 No matter who we were before, we are baptized into one body in Christ.
Gospel: John 20:19-23 Jesus imparts to the church the breath of the Spirit and the power to forgive.

FOCUS: Easter isn't just about Jesus' resurrection from the dead, but our rising to new life.

The first Easter – that day in human history where Jesus Christ was raised from the dead – is not simply a historical fact, but a theological and spiritual reality in which we continue to live. We are immersed in the life that was created for us in his rising, and we celebrate that "little Easter" in every Sunday Eucharist. Through the grace received there and the gifts of the Holy Spirit, we are sent as workers in the kingdom, helping to renew the face of the earth.

Almighty and eternal God, protect the men and women who serve in our military. Protect them with the shield of Your strength and keep them safe from all evil and harm. May the power of Your love enable them to return home in safety, that with all who love them, they may ever praise You for Your loving care. Amen.

Eucharistic Adoration

You are invited to pray in front of the Blessed Sacrament every Thursday following the 12:10pm Mass, until 6pm; and every Saturday from 7pm - 8pm.

Since June is dedicated to the Sacred Heart we will take a brief look at the devotion and background.

What is the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus?
The Heart is the symbol of human love. This Catholic devotion honors the Sacred Heart of Our Lord, through which was manifested to us God's eternal love for everyone. "God is Love" (1 John 4:8), and so in honoring the human expression of that Love, especially on the Cross, we honor Its Divine Source.

Why is the Sacred Heart important?
St. John Paul II said, "The Sacred Heart has given us everything — redemption, salvation, sanctification."

The Sacred Heart is the actual heart of Christ and also indicates His love for humanity. The Catechism of the Catholic Church says, "The prayer of the Church venerates and honors the Heart of Jesus just as it invokes his most holy name. It adores the incarnate Word and his Heart which, out of love for men, he allowed to be pierced by our sins." (CCC 2669)

"If I cannot see the brilliance of your Face or hear your sweet voice, O my God, I can live by your grace, I can rest on your Sacred Heart!" – St. Thérèse of Lisieux

What is the history of the Sacred Heart devotion?
The foundation for the Sacred Heart devotion began in early Christianity. Sacred Scripture, particularly the New Testament, mentions the love of God many times, and the Church Fathers discuss God's love as well.

In the eleventh century, Christians often meditated on the Five Wounds of Jesus, and the devotion to the Sacred Heart came from this meditation. St. Gertrude the Great, who had private revelations regarding the Sacred Heart, helped further the understanding of Jesus' Sacred Heart in the late 13th-century.

Several centuries later, in 1670, St. John Eudes celebrated the first Feast of the Sacred Heart. In 1673, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, a French Visitation nun, received her own revelations, in which Jesus explained His love for all people, even allowing St. Margaret to lay her head on His Heart, as He had also allowed St. Gertrude to do. He asked that Catholics receive Holy Communion on the First Fridays of the month and adore Him in the Holy Eucharist.

In 1675, Jesus told St. Margaret that He wanted an annual feast in honor of His Sacred Heart. In 1856, Blessed Pope Pius IX designated that the Feast of the Sacred Heart would be celebrated universally on the Friday after the Corpus Christi octave each year.

"In the Sacred Heart every treasure of wisdom and knowledge is hidden. In that Divine Heart beats God's infinite love for everyone, for each one of us individually." – St. John Paul II

Why is Jesus' Heart on fire? Jesus told St. Margaret Mary, "My Sacred Heart is so intense in its love for men, and for you in particular, that not being able to contain within it the flames of its ardent charity, they must be transmitted through all means."

St. Gertrude the Great said, "O Sacred Heart of Jesus, fountain of eternal life, Your Heart is a glowing furnace of Love. You are my refuge and my sanctuary. O my adorable and loving Savior, consume my heart with the burning fire with which Yours is aflame. Pour down on my soul those graces which flow from Your love. Let my heart be united with Yours. Let my will be conformed to Yours in all things. May Your Will be the rule of all my desires and actions. Amen."

Why does Jesus point to His Heart?
In Sacred Heart imagery, Jesus usually points to His Heart. This is to indicate His eternal love for each one of us.

What is the First Friday devotion?
Jesus Himself started the First Friday devotion. The last of twelve Sacred Heart Promises, He said, "I promise you in the excessive mercy of my Heart that my all-powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the First Fridays in nine consecutive months the grace of final perseverance; they shall not die in my disgrace, nor without receiving their sacraments. My divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in this last moment."

Ya que junio está dedicado al Sagrado Corazón, analizaremos brevemente la devoción y los antecedentes.

¿Cuál es el sacratísimo corazón de Jesús? El corazón es el símbolo del amor humano. Esta devoción católica honra el corazón sagrado de nuestro Señor, a través del cual nos fue manifestado para nosotros el amor eterno de Dios por todos. "Dios es amor" (1 Juan 4: 8), y así al honrar la expresión humana de ese amor, especialmente en la cruz, honramos su fuente divina.

¿Por qué es importante el Sagrado Corazón?

San Juan Pablo II dijo: "El Sagrado Corazón nos ha dado todo: redención, salvación, santificación".

El sagrado corazón es el corazón real de Cristo y también indica su amor por la humanidad. El catecismo de la Iglesia Católica dice: “La oración de la iglesia venera y honra el corazón de Jesús tal como invocar su santo nombre. Adora la palabra encarnada y su corazón que, por amor a los hombres, permitió ser atravesado por nuestros pecados”. (CCC 2669)

"Si no puedo ver el brillo de su rostro o escuchar su dulce voz, oh Dios, puedo vivir por tu gracia, ¡puedo descansar en tu sagrado corazón!" - San Thérèse de Lisieux.

¿Cuál es la historia de la devoción del Sagrado Corazón?

Los orígenes de la devoción del Sagrado Corazón comenzaron en el cristianismo primitivo. La Sagrada Escritura, particularmente el Nuevo Testamento, menciona el amor de Dios muchas veces, y los padres de la Iglesia también discuten el amor de Dios. En el siglo XI, los cristianos a menudo meditaban sobre las cinco heridas de Jesús, y la devoción al sagrado corazón provino de esta meditación. San Gertrude el Grande, que tenía revelaciones privadas con respecto al Sagrado Corazón, ayudó a promover la comprensión del corazón sagrado de Jesús a fines del siglo XIII.

Varios siglos después, en 1670, San Juan Eudes celebró la primera fiesta del Sagrado Corazón. En 1673, St. Margaret Mary Alacoque, una monja francesa de la Visitación, recibió sus propias revelaciones, en las que Jesús explicó su amor por todas las personas, incluso permitiendo a St. Margaret colocar su cabeza sobre su corazón, ya que también había permitido a San Gertrude hacer lo mismo. Pidió que los católicos recibieran la Sagrada Comunión los primeros viernes del mes y lo adoraran en la Santa Eucaristía.

En 1675, Jesús le dijo a St. Margaret que quería una fiesta anual en honor a su sagrado corazón. En 1856, el Beato Papa Pío IX designó que la Fiesta del Sagrado Corazón se celebraría universalmente el viernes después de la Octava del Corpus Christi cada año. “En el sagrado corazón, todo tesoro de sabiduría y conocimiento está oculto. En ese corazón divino late el amor infinito de Dios por todos, por cada uno de nosotros individualmente". - San Juan Pablo II.

¿Por qué el corazón de Jesús está en llamas?

Jesús le dijo a Santa Margarita María: "Mi sagrado corazón es tan intenso en su amor por los hombres, y para usted en particular, que no puede contener dentro de ella las llamas de su ardiente caridad, deben transmitirse a través de todos los medios".

San Gertrude el Grande dijo: “Oh, sagrado corazón de Jesús, fuente de la vida eterna, tu corazón es un horno brillante de amor. Eres mi refugio y mi santuario. Oh, mi adorable y amoroso Salvador, consume mi corazón con el fuego ardiente con el que el tuyo está en llamas. Vierte sobre mi alma esas gracias que fluyen de tu amor. Deja que mi corazón esté unido con el tuyo. Deja que mi voluntad se ajuste a la tuya en todas las cosas. Que tu voluntad sea la regla de todos mis deseos y acciones. Amén."

¿Por qué Jesús señala su corazón?

En imágenes del Sagrado Corazón, Jesús generalmente apunta a su corazón. Esto es para indicar su amor eterno por cada uno de nosotros.

¿Por qué el primer viernes esta devoción?

Jesús mismo comenzó el primer viernes esta devoción. La última de las doce promesas del Sagrado Corazón, dice: “Te prometo en la misericordia excesiva de mi corazón que mi amor todopoderoso otorgará a todos aquellos que reciban la Sagrada Comunión los primeros viernes en nueve meses consecutivos La gracia de la perseverancia final; No morirán en mi desgracia, ni sin recibir sus sacramentos. Mi corazón divino será su refugio seguro en este último momento".
