Readings for First Sunday of Advent
1st Reading: Jeremiah 33:14-16 Justice is coming. Those who are just will be happy to see this new day dawn.
2nd Reading: 1 Thessalonians 3:12-4:2 Conduct yourselves in the ways of God and never fail to seek more progress in holiness.
Gospel: Luke 21:25-28, 34-36 The great day of the Lord is coming. Will it close like a trap, or bring cause for rejoicing?
FOCUS: Prepare for the coming of the Lord.
 As we begin Advent, our readings today offer wisdom in discerning what it means to prepare our hearts for the Lord. They are beckoning us to wake up and be attentive to what is around us, for God's time is at hand. We have the blessing of this season to prepare for the coming of the Lord, and to allow our hearts to be transformed.

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

We have reached the last Sunday of the liturgical year, the Solemnity of Christ the King!

As promised, permit to share with you about the last of the four Major Basilicas of Rome, The Basilica of St. Mary Major. This basilica houses the oldest Marian icon of Rome. It is named, Salus Populi Romani.

Pope Francis makes a visit to this icon and presents flowers to Our Lady after he returns to Rome from his apostolic visits. It is a beautiful act of devotion that our Holy Father does. As a parish priest, it is a joyful sight to see the shrine of our Lady's chapel in the church continuously adorned with flowers. There are parishioners that come every week to present flowers to her. It is a beautiful act of our love for our Lady and a sign that someone was there to offer their respect to her by placing flowers.

As we approach Thanksgiving may I suggest for you to make a written list of all the things that you are grateful for to Jesus. This list is hopefully a long one. If it is initially short, trust me with some time and prayer it will be much longer. You can place it before a sacred image of Jesus in your home.

As is the case for everyone, there are things that we have carried this year that have been painful and burdensome. We can only make sense of it through the Holy Cross of Jesus. It is in the true and lasting image of Jesus offering His life for us on the Cross in which we can find comfort and peace. His crown is the Crown of Thorns. His throne is the Holy Cross. His people are the Church.

Please know how tremendously thankful I am to be your pastor, these past 5 months have been so precious to me. On behalf of the priests, I wish you and your loved ones a happy thanksgiving. God bless you.

Pax et Bonum.

In Jesus and Mary,

Padre Pio: Saint, Mystic & Spiritual Father

The Parish of Holy Name of Mary cordially invites you to an evening presentation on Saint Padre Pio. It will focus on his life as a mystical priest, a saint, a spiritual father for both the living and the dead, and his ongoing battles with the devil.

Following the presentation, there will be an opportunity to venerate a relic of St. Padre Pio.

*“It would be easier for the world to exist without the sun than without the Holy Mass.”
– Padre Pio*

Please join us Monday, December 2nd at 7:00 pm. at Holy Name of Mary Parish

Thanksgiving Day
November 28
9:00 AM Mass

Giving thanks to the Lord is a wonderful way to begin your Thanksgiving Day!

Join us as we come together at the 9am Mass to give thanks to God for the many gifts and blessings we have received.

We invite you to bring one of the food items that you will be preparing for your family, and at the end of Mass, the food will be blessed for your Thanksgiving celebration.

As we have done every Thanksgiving Day, you are invited to bring donations of food to help restock our food pantry. We would very much appreciate any donations.

The Priests and Parish Staff wish everyone a Happy Thanksgiving! The Parish Office will be closed on Thanksgiving Day, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

“Prepare ye the way of the Lord”

How will you be preparing for the birth of Christ?

Why not pray the Rosary, via ZOOM, with fellow parishioners during the Advent Season? You will be creating a prayerful blanket for Baby Jesus.

Candy Canes & Sweets

The drawing for the winners of the $10,000 raffle is Dec. 8th, at 2:30pm in the school cafeteria. Candy canes and sweets, along with coffee, tea and hot chocolate will be served. Raffle baskets and a 50/50 will help offset the expenses of the raffle. Looking forward to congratulating the winners and sharing some parish family friendship.

Winner need not be present.

O Jesus Christ, I acknowledge you as universal King.
All that has been made has been created for You.
Exercise all Your rights over me.

I renew my Baptismal Vows. I renounce Satan, his pomps and his works; I promise to live as a good Christian. And, in particular do I pledge myself to labor, to the best of my ability, for the triumph of the rights of God and of Your Church.

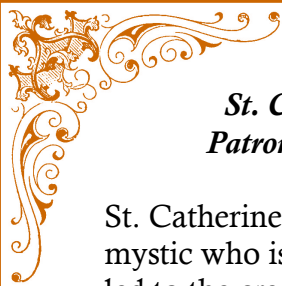

Divine Heart of Jesus, to You do I offer my poor services, laboring that all hearts may acknowledge Your sacred kingship, and that thus the reign of Your peace be established throughout the whole universe.
Amen.

This week we honor:

*St. Catherine Labouré-November 28
Patron Saint of the Miraculous Medal*

St. Catherine Labouré was a nineteenth-century mystic who is most known for her visions which led to the creation of the Miraculous Medal of Our Lady of Graces, a devotional object which remains popular today. She was a member of the Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul in France. In the beginning of her time in the order, she had visions of Mary from which came the creation of the Miraculous Medal. Even after these mystical experiences, she remained obedient to her superiors and spent the next forty years of her life caring for those in hospice care. She is a patron saint of the elderly and the infirm as well as the patron of the Miraculous Medal.

St. Catherine Labouré, pray for us.

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

Hemos llegado al último domingo del año litúrgico, ¡la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey!

Como prometí, permítanme compartir con ustedes acerca de la última de las cuatro Basílicas Mayores de Roma, la Basílica de Santa María la Mayor. Esta basílica alberga el ícono mariano más antiguo de Roma. Se llama Salus Populi Romani.

El Papa Francisco hace una visita a este ícono y le presenta flores a Nuestra Señora después de regresar a Roma de sus visitas apostólicas. Es un hermoso acto de devoción que hace nuestro Santo Padre. Como párroco, es un espectáculo alegre ver el santuario de la capilla de Nuestra Señora en la iglesia continuamente adornado con flores. Hay feligreses que vienen cada semana a presentarle flores. Es un hermoso acto de nuestro amor por Nuestra Señora y una señal de que alguien estuvo allí para ofrecerle su respeto colocando flores.

A medida que nos acercamos al Día de Acción de Gracias, permítanme sugerirles que hagan una lista escrita de todas las cosas por las que están agradecidos a Jesús. Espero que esta lista sea larga. Si al principio es breve, créeme que con un poco de tiempo y oración será mucho más largo. Puedes colocarlo ante una imagen sagrada de Jesús en tu hogar.

Como es el caso de todos, hay cosas que hemos llevado este año que han sido dolorosas y pesadas. Solo podemos darle sentido a través de la Santa Cruz de Jesús. Es en la imagen verdadera y duradera de Jesús ofreciendo Su vida por nosotros en la Cruz en la que podemos encontrar consuelo y paz. Su corona es la Corona de Espinas. Su trono es la Santa Cruz. Su pueblo es la Iglesia.

Por favor, sepan lo tremendamente agradecido que estoy de ser su pastor, estos últimos 5 meses han sido muy valiosos para mí. En nombre de los sacerdotes, les deseo a ustedes y a sus seres queridos un feliz día de acción de gracias. Dios los bendiga.

Pax et Bonum.

DID YOU KNOW?

You may know Thanksgiving is a day full of gratitude, turkeys and loved ones—but how many Thanksgiving facts do you really know? Here are a few interesting ones according to Readers Digest. Happy Thanksgiving!

Data from the US Poultry and Egg Association, Americans consume more than 45 million turkeys on Thanksgiving. According to the US Calorie Control Council, an average American may consume a whopping 4,500 calories and 229 grams of fat on Thanksgiving Day. The recommended daily caloric intake for an average person is 2,000 per day! A typical adult needs to spend 10 hours at a steady pace on a treadmill to burn off an average Thanksgiving meal.

It takes an average of 9.6 hours for a host to prepare a full Thanksgiving meal. How much time is spent eating that meal? 16 minutes.

There are three towns in the United States named "Turkey." They can be found in Texas, Louisiana, and North Carolina.

Around 50 million pumpkin pies are consumed every Thanksgiving, even though opinion polls show that America's favorite pie is apple.

If you've got a question about your Thanksgiving turkey, the Butterball Turkey Hotline is at your service. Each year, Butterball's experts take over 100,000 calls about turkey preparation during November and December.

The TV dinner was born from Thanksgiving leftovers. Specifically, a worker at Swanson ordered excess frozen turkeys on the Thanksgiving Day of 1953. The company's salesman suggested packaging the leftover turkeys in aluminum trays as well as cornbread dressing, sweet potatoes, and peas.

The plastic piece or wire that holds the turkey legs together is called a "hock lock."

The Macy's Thanksgiving Day parade balloons are huge, and there are rules in place that prevent them from getting any larger. In 1997, the balloons went haywire on a particularly windy holiday. The Barney balloon tore along its middle. Police had to stab the Pink Panther to regain control of it. And the Cat in the Hat struck a lamppost at 72nd Street, bringing the balloon down. After these events, parade organizers came up with a size regulation: Balloons can't be larger than 70 feet high, 78 feet long and 40 feet wide.

Nothing satisfies quite like Thanksgiving leftovers. According to a 2024 survey by Jennie-O, 96% of Americans agree leftovers are the best part of the Thanksgiving meal. Who can resist that next-day turkey sandwich or a second helping of stuffing?
