Readings for 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time
1st Reading: Jeremiah 17:5-8 When we stand apart from the Lord, we are rooted in an environment without hope.
2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20 We can't choose between faith's mystical and moral aspects. Our hope is in the Risen One.
Gospel: Luke 6:17, 20-26 The blessings of the Lord and the woes of worldly gain are spread before us all.
FOCUS: God lifts us up to greater things.
 Our readings today emphasize that our eyes should not be fixed on things of this world. We will not find true fulfillment on earth, where things pass away. Rather, our focus is to be on the Lord and following His ways. He lifts us up, no matter what hardship we are facing.

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

There is a man who I know, and if I may give him the pseudonym, Francis, who was going through some personal family difficulties. At the time, Francis's mother had serious health problems. So much so, that Francis had to bring her to the ER.

After a few days of prayer, vigilance, and waiting, Francis' mother health stabilized. It seemed that surgery was inevitable. Fortunately, the status of her health was better than initially expected. Francis found out that his mother was being discharged the next day. As it turns out, he received this good news right before he was going to celebrate Holy Mass.

At Mass, Francis was tremendously grateful to Jesus for watching over his mother. I am sure we have had many events like this in our own life. When we pray for something and God grants it to us, it is natural for us to give Jesus heartfelt thanks.

What if it doesn't exactly turn out the way we wanted it to? Can we still give thanks to God? We can if we trust in the power of God's grace. The Lord is always with us. Leading us through to the Cross to the Kingdom of Heaven. A simple prayer written by Servant of God, Fr. Dolindo Routolo, can be helpful to the soul: O Jesus, I surrender myself to You, take care of everything!

Pax et Bonum.

St. Vincent de Paul Message

In the Gospel today, we learn of the first sword in Mary's heart – the knowledge of her Son's death. Though many would live forever in fear, Mary found courage in faith in the Lord. Your gift to the poor can bring the love and peace of Jesus to those who live in fear and doubt, in loneliness and dread.

Eucharistic Minister Information Meeting

Monday, January 24th at 7:30pm
 Parish Outreach Office
 65 E. Jamaica Ave.

- ▶ Have you thought about becoming a Eucharistic Minister?
- ▶ Do you hesitate because you don't think you are worthy, or because you feel that you don't know enough about your faith?
- ▶ How does a person become a Eucharistic Minister for our parish?
- ▶ What are the qualifications? What training is involved?
- ▶ What is the commitment and what are the responsibilities?

These are some of the questions that will be addressed at an information meeting on Monday, January 24th. Eucharistic Ministers are involved in a very important ministry in our parish. They serve at Mass and also bring the Eucharist to people who are sick at home or who are in hospitals and nursing homes in our area. We rely on their service and welcome you to consider being involved.

If you have been curious about this topic OR if you think you may be interested in this ministry, please plan to attend this meeting. For more information, call the Parish Outreach Office at 516-825-0177.

Growing in FAITH™

Meditations

St. Jerome Emiliani

St. Jerome led a wayward life while a soldier until he was captured in battle and turned back to God. Soon after returning to Venice, he began studying for the priesthood and was ordained in 1518. With the devastation from the war came famine and plague. At his own expense, St. Jerome cared for the victims left behind, especially the children. For this purpose, he and some companions founded the Clerks Regulars of Somasca, in Somasca, Italy.

Imitating Christ in the world

When Jesus said, "I am the way" (John 14:6), He meant for us to follow Him and live as He lived. He ate, slept, worked, and cared for friends and family, much like we do. Now, ordinary life, lived in union with Christ, can be an opportunity of grace for us.

"All the feasts in the Church's calendar are events of remembrance and hence events of hope."

-Pope Benedict XVI

"I choose heaven"

Our time on Earth is but a fleeting moment compared to the vastness of eternity. Yet, we often prioritize earthly concerns over preparing for Heaven. Jesus reminds us of the right priority: "Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you besides" (Matthew 6:33). When we put God first, He faithfully provides for our every need.

What are your true priorities? Your daily routine is a reflection of your heart. Pause and consider: What consumes your time and energy? The things that dominate your schedule are the true indicators of your priorities. If they are pulling you away from God, it's time to reevaluate and make a change.

Where do you turn for guidance? When faced with decisions, do you seek advice from friends, social media, or colleagues, or do you turn to prayer and Scripture? Aligning our choices with God's wisdom leads to lasting fulfillment and peace. Resolve to trust His direction over the fleeting opinions of the world. When we place our decisions in His hands, we can move forward with confidence.

Do you trust God with your happiness? God's promises assure us of His perfect plan: "For I know well the plans I have in mind for you, says the Lord, plans for your welfare, not for woe, plans to give you a future full of hope" (Jeremiah 29:11).

If trusting Him feels difficult, invite Him into your doubts and fears. Ask Him to reveal His goodness and faithfulness—He will answer, because He is always near. Refocus your heart and trust God's plan for your life. Let go of distractions, realign your priorities, and step into the peace that comes from seeking Him first.

Why do Catholics Do That

Why are Catholics only baptized once?

The Catholic Church teaches that Baptism is the gateway to the Christian life, marking the beginning of our communion with God.

Through this Sacrament, we are adopted as God's children and permanently sealed as His own. Baptism transforms us into new creations, opening our hearts to grace, strengthening us against sin, and deepening our love for God and others (Catechism of the Catholic Church, #1121).

Because this sacred mark is everlasting, Baptism is received only once, signifying our eternal bond with God and call to holiness.

Trusting God in unexpected moments

Imagine you're at a wedding celebration for your friends. The atmosphere is lively, the music is playing, and everyone is enjoying themselves—until you overhear a troubling conversation. The kitchen has run out of wine. Due to an oversight, the caterers didn't bring enough, and with all the stores closed, the situation seems hopeless. What now?

"They have no wine" (John 2:3). Moments of crisis can catch us off guard, but they don't have to shake us. When Mary encountered this dilemma at the wedding in Cana, she didn't panic or place blame. Instead, she turned to the one she knew could help—her Son, Jesus. With confidence, she simply informed Him of the need, trusting fully in His ability to provide. "Do whatever He tells you" (John 2:5). These profound words, Mary's last recorded in Scripture, offer us a powerful lesson. When we bring our problems to God, He often invites us to be part of the solution. Trusting Him means being open to His direction, even when it leads to unexpected actions. The servants at Cana likely didn't anticipate filling massive jars with water, yet their obedience led to an extraordinary outcome—the finest wine, far surpassing anything they could have imagined. With God, the impossible becomes possible.

from Scripture

Luke 6:27-38, The demands of merciful love

In this Gospel passage, Jesus challenges our natural sense of fairness by commanding us to "love your enemies ... lend expecting nothing in return ... and forgive." These teachings contrast with the Old Testament principle of "an eye for an eye," which aimed to prevent excessive punishment, and the idea of exchanging favors as a sign of gratitude. However, human justice can lead to destructive cycles of retaliation and diminish the sincerity of generosity. When giving is tied to expectations, it becomes difficult to discern whether kindness is motivated by love or the hope of something in return. Jesus invites us to embrace God's justice—one that surpasses human understanding. God's love is not conditional or transactional; it is generous, selfless, and freely given to all, regardless of merit. As children of God, we are called to reflect His love by extending kindness, forgiveness, and generosity without expectation. In doing so, we move beyond human limitations and participate in God's perfect justice.

FEASTS & CELEBRATIONS

February 2 - The Presentation of the Lord. In accordance with the Law of Moses, Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple forty days after His birth, and Simeon praised God for revealing the long-awaited Savior.

February 10 - St. Scholastica (543). Twin sister to St. Benedict, St. Scholastica established a community of religious women about five miles from her brother's monastery.

February 17 - The Seven Holy Founders (13th century). Seven Italian noblemen who withdrew from the immorality of the times to live in prayer, simplicity and penance. Their order, the Servants of Mary, was later approved by the Holy See in 1304.

February 23 - St. Polycarp (155). Bishop of Smyrna, Asia-Minor, Polycarp was a disciple of the apostle St. John the Evangelist, and a friend of St. Ignatius of Antioch. He faithfully cared for his flock despite being surrounded by pagans and a government opposed to his religion. Before he was martyred, he thanked God for making him worthy of a martyr's death.

Q & A

What do icons offer to our devotional life?

Icons are a revered form of sacred art.

These sacred images carry a deep historical and theological significance, rich in symbolism and spiritual depth. Recognizable by their distinctive "flattened" style, vivid colors, and frequent use of gold backgrounds, icons often depict significant events from the lives of Jesus, Mary, and the saints, offering a window into their mystical and spiritual dimensions.

At first glance, the stylized, two-dimensional nature of icons, coupled with the direct gaze of the figures, can feel unfamiliar or even challenging to engage with in prayer. It is often recommended to begin by spending just five minutes a day in quiet reflection before an icon, gradually increasing the duration over time. There is no need to rush—prayer with icons is a contemplative journey, and as we remain open and attentive, the Holy Spirit gradually unveils their deeper meaning to us.

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

Conozco a un hombre, si me permiten su pseudónimo, Francis, que estaba pasando por algunas dificultades familiares personales. En ese momento, la madre de Francis tenía graves problemas de salud. Tanto, que Francis tuvo que llevarla a urgencias.

Después de unos días de oración, vigilancia y espera, la salud de la madre de Francis se estabilizó. Parecía que la cirugía era inevitable. Afortunadamente, el estado de salud de su madre era mejor de lo esperado inicialmente. Francis se enteró de que su madre iba a recibir el alta al día siguiente. Resulta que recibió esta buena noticia justo antes de celebrar la Santa Misa.

En la Misa, Francis se mostró tremendamente agradecido a Jesús por cuidar de su madre. Estoy seguro de que hemos tenido muchos eventos como este en nuestra propia vida. Cuando oramos por algo y Dios nos lo concede, es natural que le demos las gracias a Jesús de corazón.

¿Qué pasa si no resulta exactamente como queríamos? ¿Podemos dar gracias a Dios igualmente? Podemos hacerlo si confiamos en el poder de la gracia de Dios. El Señor está siempre con nosotros, guiándonos a través de la cruz hacia el Reino de los Cielos. Una sencilla oración escrita por el Siervo de Dios, el padre Dolindo Routolo, puede ser de ayuda para el alma: ¡Oh Jesús, me entrego a Ti, cuida de todo!

Pax et Bonum.
