Bishop Barres' Statement on the Death of Pope Francis

April 21, 2025

As we mourn the death of Pope Francis on this Easter Octave Monday and the gift of his contemplative global evangelization grounded in Matthew 25 and the spiritual and corporal works of mercy, we give thanks to Father, Son and Holy Spirit for his unique graces and charisms and the compelling way during his Pontificate that he has been a Light of Jesus Christ and the mission of mercy of the Catholic Church to the world.

In Evangelii Gaudium (2013), Pope Francis speaks about the original freshness of the Gospel: "Jesus can also break through the dull categories with which we would enclose him and he constantly amazes us by his divine creativity. Whenever we make the effort to return to the source and to recover the original freshness of the Gospel, new avenues arise, new paths of creativity open up, with different forms of expression, more eloquent signs and words with new meaning for today's world. Every form of authentic evangelization is always 'new.'" (11)

Pope Francis' commitment to the freshness of the Gospel and his desire to forge new paths of mission creativity were expressed in his encyclicals Lumen Fidei (2013), Laudato si' (2015), Fratelli Tutti (2020), and Dilexit Nos (2024), along with his apostolic exhortations Evangelii Gaudium (2013), Amoris Laetitia (2016) and Gaudete et Exsultate (2018), Christus Vivit (2019), Querida Amazonia (2020), Laudate Deum (2023), and C'est la confiance (2023).

This section of Evangelii Gaudium captures, I believe, Pope Francis' passionate love for the Church and the world and it will continue to inspire us as the Holy Spirit leads us further into the 21st century: "How I long to find the right words to stir up enthusiasm for a new chapter of evangelization full of fervor, joy, generosity, courage, boundless love and attraction! Yet I realize that no words of encouragement will be enough unless the fire of the Holy Spirit burns in our hearts. A spirit-filled evangelization is one guided by the Holy Spirit, for he is the soul of the Church called to proclaim the Gospel...I once more invoke the Holy Spirit. I implore him to come and renew the Church, to stir and impel her to go forth boldly to evangelize all peoples." (261)

Today, we pray for the soul of Pope Francis, we pray for the College of Cardinals which will elect his successor, and we pray for his successor who will be elevated to the Chair of Saint Peter.

As we pray for the soul of our Holy Father Pope Francis on this Easter Octave Monday, we remember his words on our Lord's Resurrection.

In The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis writes: "Christ's resurrection is not an event of the past; it contains a vital power which has permeated the world. Where all seems to be dead, signs of the resurrection suddenly spring up. It is an irresistible force...Each day in our world beauty is born anew, it rises transformed through the storms of history...Such is the power of the resurrection, and all who evangelize are instruments of that power." (276)

May the Word of God be a Light and a Lamp for our steps and may the Holy Spirit lead and guide us!

Readings for Third Sunday of Easter

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 5:27-32, 40b-41
 Human laws may judge us, but God's law compels us.
Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-12, 13 Mourning becomes dancing when we experience divine rescue.
2nd Reading: Revelation 5:11-14 The divine liturgy of heaven fills its lone witness with awe and wonder.
Gospel: John 21:1-19 Peter, who leads the disciples, learns first to follow his Lord.
FOCUS: We must obey God rather than men.
 In order to move forward, we need to look back. We need to remember, to be ready for what is to come. In the Mass, we are reminded of how Jesus offered Himself for us; how He cares and nourishes us; and how He guides us. With this remembrance, we can move forward in love to follow and serve Him.

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

The Lord is Risen! I hope you had joyful and blessed Easter Sunday. I would like to thank all those who helped make Holy Week possible. To the clergy, the parish staff, many volunteers, ministries, altar servers, I thank you for your loving service. Special thanks to Ace Landscaping, Dee's Florist, The Boys and Girls Scouts of America and parishioners for the flowers of the Church both inside and outside the Church building.

In a more sobering note, permit me to ask you a self-reflecting question. This question comes to me every now and then. If you knew that you had one day left to live, what would you do? Would it be an ordinary day or would you do something adventurous?

For Pope Francis' last full day was on Easter Sunday. He gave the blessing to the faithful gathered at St. Peter's Square. He had his written words for the Easter Proclamation read by his assistant. What better way to live the last day of your life as the successor of St. Peter.

The outpouring of love for Pope Francis is a great testament of the simple and holy life that he lived in imitation of Jesus Christ. It is a bit overwhelming and humbling the amount of attention, media coverage, and respect that is given to the Roman Catholic Church during these weeks leading up to the election of his successor. No other religious institution receives as much attention in the United States than the Catholic Church.

Eternal rest grant unto Francis, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him, may he rest in peace. Amen.
May his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace. Amen.

Pax et Bonum.

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

¡El Señor ha resucitado! Espero que hayan tenido un Domingo de Pascua feliz y bendecido. Quisiera agradecer a todos los que hicieron posible la Semana Santa. Al clero, al personal parroquial, a los numerosos voluntarios, a los ministerios y a los monaguillos, les agradezco su amoroso servicio. Un agradecimiento especial a Ace Landscaping, Dee's Florist, a los Boys and Girls Scouts of America y a los feligreses por las flores que nos regalaron, tanto dentro como fuera de la iglesia.

En un tono más aleccionador, permítanme hacerles una pregunta que me hace reflexionar. Esta pregunta me viene a la mente de vez en cuando. Si supieran que les queda un día de vida, ¿qué harían? ¿Sería un día cualquiera o harían algo aventurero?

El último día completo del Papa Francisco fue el Domingo de Pascua. Dio la bendición a los fieles reunidos en la Plaza de San Pedro. Su asistente leyó las palabras que escribió para el Pregón Pascual. ¿Qué mejor manera de vivir el último día de tu vida como sucesor de San Pedro?

La efusión de amor por el Papa Francisco es un gran testimonio de la vida sencilla y santa que vivió a imitación de Jesucristo. Es un poco abrumadora y conmovedora la cantidad de atención, cobertura mediática y respeto que se le brinda a la Iglesia Católica Romana durante estas semanas previas a la elección de su sucesor. Ninguna otra institución religiosa recibe tanta atención en Estados Unidos como la Iglesia Católica.

Concede el descanso eterno a Francisco, Señor.
Y que brille para él la luz perpetua. Descanse en paz. Amén.
Que su alma y la de todos los fieles difuntos descansen en paz. Amén.

Pax et Bonum.
