Readings for Fourth Sunday of Easter

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 13:14, 43-52 52
Outsiders are delighted and insiders enraged at the gospel preached by Paul and Barnabas.

2nd Reading: Revelation 7:9, 14b-17 Those who remain faithful to the Lord will have no reason to shed a tear.

Gospel: John 10:27-30 Jesus is entrusted by his Father with the care of the sheep who follow him.

FOCUS: Can we hear Christ's voice speaking to us today? Can we hear Christ's voice speaking to us today?
Or are we like those who were filled with jealousy and deaf to the Good News? We may have moments where we can hear, and moments where distractions deafen us to our shepherd's voice. Let us pray for new hearts and open ears to follow Christ.

Eucharistic Adoration/Confession

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

And so, we begin the month of Mary, dedicated to the Mother of God and in a few days begins the conclave to elect a new Pope!

To begin this great month of May, the children of our parish had a very special day. Yesterday, our first holy communicants received their First Holy Communion. What a beautiful day of grace and joy for them. Congratulations children! Special thanks to Mrs. Cecilia Garzona and staff, our catechists, sponsors, and parents of our first holy communicants.

As you and the entire world know, the conclave will begin on Wednesday. The conclave is a major event in the history of the Catholic Church. It is a time of waiting and prayer as we anticipate the election of a new pope. During a conclave, cardinal electors are forbidden to speak about the results of the election and have no form of communication to the public. Even though the cardinals are in Vatican City, they are completely cloistered from the outside world.

I remember Cardinal Timothy Dolan once gave a sermon to prison inmates and he described his experience of attending the conclave that elected Pope Francis. He said, "going to a conclave is like voluntarily going to prison." You cannot leave until the conclave is over.

Pondering the cardinal's words, I am reminded of the beautiful life of cloistered monks and nuns who live in a monastery. They leave the world and all its pleasures, and live a life of deep prayer, penance, manual labor, and fellowship. Apart from manual labor, a conclave is nearly identical. The Catholic Church and the whole world are waiting on who the next successor of St. Peter will be. It's going to be an exciting time!

Let us ask the Blessed Mother to pray for Pope Francis and for his next successor.

Pax et Bonum.

In Jesus and Mary,

Please remember in your prayers: the children of Holy Name of Mary, who received their First Holy Communion on Saturday, May 3, 2025.

Heavenly Father, we mourn the passing of Your servant Pope Francis. May he rest in Your peace and rise in glory. Lord, as the Church enters this time of transition, we ask for the guidance of Your Holy Spirit. Pour forth Your wisdom upon the College of Cardinals as they gather to discern Your will for the successor to the Chair of St. Peter. Grant them clarity of mind, purity of heart and courage of spirit, that they may choose a shepherd after Your own heart, one who will lead Your flock with wisdom, holiness and love. May the new pope be a faithful witness to Your truth, a compassionate minister to all in need, and a unifying presence in our divided world. We ask this through Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever and ever. Amen.

Altar Server Training for current and new servers.

To all young people of our parish and school: Have you ever considered learning more about the important role of an Altar Server at Mass?

Altar serving at Mass is a great way to actively participate in the liturgy and serve the community. Altar servers play a vital role in assisting the priest during the celebration of the Eucharist. Any young parishioner who has received their First Communion is welcome to become an altar server. Altar Server Training will soon begin for current and NEW servers. Please consider joining this very important ministry. See training schedule to the right.

Wednesday, May 7 at 7PM—Current Altar Server training
Wednesday, May 21 at 7PM—NEW Altar Server training
Wednesday, May 28 at 7PM—NEW Altar Server training
Wednesday, June 4 at 7PM—NEW Altar Server training

Please complete the form below if you are interested in this ministry. You must be available for all 3 training sessions for NEW servers listed above.

Yes! I am interested in becoming an Altar Server!

Meditations

St. Augustine of Canterbury

St. Augustine was an Italian Benedictine monk who, with forty other monks, was sent to re-evangelize England. The Celtic population had already accepted Christ, but the incoming Anglo-Saxons hadn't.

St. Augustine and his companions arrived at Ebbsfleet in 597, and were, thankfully, welcomed by King Ethelbert of Kent, who gave them permission to preach the Gospel. He also later converted. St. Augustine and his companions successfully converted southern England. He is called the "Apostle of England."

Happy Pentecost

On Pentecost, the Holy Spirit descended on the Blessed Mother and the Apostles in the Upper Room, in a display of divine glory. The Holy Spirit continues to guide the Church, just as He inspired the first Apostles to go preach to the ends of the earth. How might He be guiding you? (We celebrate Pentecost on June 8, this year.)

"Be the one"

"Be with Jesus. ...I always write that sentence, 'I looked for one to comfort Me, but I found no one'. Then I write, 'Be the one.' So now you be the one. Try to be the one to share with Him, to comfort Him, to console Him. So let us ask Our Lady to help us understand."

Mother Teresa

"Be not afraid"

What God wants most for each of us is to be happy with Him in heaven. He uses the world to shape us and give us qualities that will help us get there untainted by sin. "Indeed, like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand..." (Jeremiah 18:6) Sometimes that means allowing us to undergo trials that cleanse and strengthens us.

Don't judge a gift by its ugly wrapping paper. Some virtues can only be acquired through hardship. Avoiding discomfort will cause you to miss out on experiences God wants you to have. While they may be uncomfortable, God would remove them at once if they weren't good for your soul.

"Pray, hope and don't worry." This famous advice from St. Pio of Pietrelcina (Padre Pio) is both comforting and practical. Many of tomorrow's troubles exist only in our minds. Live your trust in God by refusing to think about what might happen and instead deal with what is happening right now. Refuse to worry. "Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life span?" (Matthew 6:27)

Accept aid. When overwhelmed, we may overlook the help God is already providing, mistakenly believing we must face challenges alone. This mindset can lead to pride—the temptation to act without God. Instead, stay open to help from others, seek guidance in Scripture and Church teachings, and remain rooted in prayer and the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist. Once your storm passes, you'll be prepared to support others through theirs.

Why do Catholics Do That

Why do Catholics have different images of the Blessed Mother?"

In the well-known Marian apparitions approved by the Church—Guadalupe, Lourdes, Fatima and Kibeho—the Blessed Virgin Mary's appearance seems to adapt to the local culture of those to whom she appears, while her central message remains consistent: a call to prayer, repentance and renewed devotion to the Faith.

For example, the miraculous image of Our Lady of Guadalupe features symbolic elements that the Aztec people would have understood, communicating the Gospel message in a way that resonated within their cultural context. This adaptation of Mary's appearance underscores her closeness to the communities she visits, reflecting the profound truth of her spiritual motherhood of all Christians.

The Ascension brings us closer to Jesus

The Ascension might have felt like a moment of separation to Jesus' disciples, but in reality, it brought them closer to Him in a deeper spiritual connection. Through His Ascension, Jesus became spiritually present everywhere, continually interceding on our behalf. He is always thinking of us, presenting our needs to the Father. When we pray, we are never alone—Jesus Himself is praying with us and for us.

Prayer "power-up". Prayer doesn't have to feel good to be good prayer. It can be a real struggle to pray throughout the day, to stay focused on God, and not get distracted. That's when we can lean on Jesus' perfect prayer to the Father. We can join our prayers to His and know they are pleasing to God.

Offer it up. Whether it involves suffering, fulfilling a necessary duty, or performing an act of charity, when we unite these actions with Jesus' self-offering on the Cross, they gain profound spiritual significance & immeasurable value for souls—especially our own.

Mass intentions. During Holy Communion or right after Mass, take a moment to present your concerns, and your desires to God, dedicating them to the service and glory of His love. Remember, God is never outdone in generosity!

from Scripture

John 14:23-29, "I am with you always."

This Gospel reading comes from Jesus' farewell discourse at the Last Supper. As He prepared to face His Passion, Death, Resurrection and Ascension, Jesus sought to strengthen His disciples, a close-knit group who had followed Him for three years. In this poignant moment, He reassured them of His continued presence, even after His departure. Before ascending to heaven, Jesus promised, "I am with you always." (Matthew 28:20)

Jesus' message was clear: although His followers would no longer see Him physically, He would remain invisibly but powerfully present. If they kept His word, both He and the Father would dwell within them through grace. Furthermore, He promised to send the Holy Spirit as a guide and comforter, granting them the gift of His peace and the assurance of His return.

Above all, Jesus is profoundly present in the Eucharist, where His Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity are truly present. (CCC, #1374) We do not need to look back in time, we encounter Jesus at every Mass.

Feasts & Celebrations

May 3 - Sts. Philip and James (1st C). St. Philip was born in Bethsaida and followed John the Baptist before he followed Christ. After the Ascension, St. Philip preached in Asia Minor, where he was martyred. St. James, the son of Alphaeus, was also one of the twelve Apostles.

May 12 - Sais Nereus & Achilleus (d.c.100). Little is known about the early lives of Sts. Nereus & Achilleus. They were Roman soldiers of the Praetorian Guard but converted to Christianity. They resigned the army, refusing to serve the Emperor. They were exiled from Rome to the island of Terracina and were beheaded.

May 29 - Solemnity of the Ascension of the Lord (1st C). Today marks the completion of Jesus' mission of salvation and his triumphant entry into Heaven.

May 29 - Pope St. Paul VI. Born in 1897, near Brescia, Italy, he spent most of his priesthood working for the Vatican. He was elected pope in 1963 and concluded the Second Vatican Council, went on many apostolic missions and wrote several significant encyclicals. He died in 1978.

Q & A

How can I make a consecration to Mary?

The Marian Consecration, or Total Consecration to Mary, is a devotion dating back to the 1700's, introduced by St. Louis de Montfort. It involves trusting one's life to Jesus through the Blessed Mother. This practice has been highly praised by many saints and popes, including Pope St. John Paul II.

Marian consecration does not involve worshipping Mary or treating her as divine. Instead, it acknowledges that Mary, as Christ's mother, always leads us to her Son. Mary serves as a bridge, guiding us closer to Jesus by the safest and most direct route.

On the Cross, Jesus gave His mother to humanity, saying, "Behold your mother." (John 19:26-27) St. John Paul II saw this as an invitation to deeper intimacy with Christ by drawing closer to the one closest to Him on earth.

Many who practice the consecration experience a deeper, more transformative prayer life, drawing closer to both Mary and Jesus.

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

Así, comenzamos el mes de María, dedicado a la Madre de Dios, y en pocos días comienza el cónclave para elegir al nuevo Papa.

Para comenzar este gran mes de mayo, los niños de nuestra parroquia tuvieron un día muy especial. Ayer, nuestros primeros comulgantes recibieron su Primera Comunión. ¡Qué hermoso día de gracia y alegría para ellos! ¡Felicidades, niños! Un agradecimiento especial a la Sra. Cecilia Garzona y al personal, a nuestros catequistas, padrinos y padres de nuestros primeros comulgantes.

Como ustedes y el mundo entero saben, el cónclave comenzará el miércoles. El cónclave es un evento importante en la historia de la Iglesia Católica. Es un tiempo de espera y oración mientras anticipamos la elección de un nuevo Papa. Durante el cónclave, los cardenales electores tienen prohibido hablar sobre los resultados de la elección y no tienen ningún tipo de comunicación con el público. Aunque los cardenales se encuentran en la Ciudad del Vaticano, están completamente aislados del mundo exterior.

Recuerdo que el cardenal Timothy Dolan dio una vez un sermón a los reclusos y describió su experiencia al asistir al cónclave que eligió al papa Francisco. Dijo: «Asistir a un cónclave es como ir voluntariamente a prisión». No puedes irte hasta que termine el cónclave.

Al reflexionar sobre las palabras del cardenal, recuerdo la hermosa vida de los monjes y monjas de clausura que viven en un monasterio. Dejan el mundo y todos sus placeres para vivir una vida de profunda oración, penitencia, trabajo manual y compañerismo. Salvo por el trabajo manual, un cónclave es casi idéntico.

La Iglesia Católica y el mundo entero esperan saber quién será el próximo sucesor de San Pedro. ¡Será un momento emocionante!

Pidamos a la Santísima Virgen que ore por el papa Francisco y por su próximo sucesor.

Pax et Bonum.

En Jesús y María,

About

Suffolk County Police will discuss how to respond appropriately to concerning statements about schools posted on social media, along with the potential consequences of making such posts. The session will also address what steps to take if you or your child sees or receives these types of comments online. An overview of the Suffolk County Police Department's investigation procedures will be provided.

Planning and practice keep schools safe. Schools are safe. It is important not to live in fear. We will talk about the difference between lockout and lockdown. It is easy to get the words mixed up especially in the height of a situation. The evening will end with information about the Suffolk County Police response and our roles in schools.
