Next Sunday's Liturgy—Jan. 25Readings for 3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Isaiah 8:23-9:3 The people of God walk beyond darkness and gloom into light and joy.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17 Needless factions threaten to divide those who do not embrace the unity of Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 4:12-23 Without hesitation fishermen leave the sea to follow the call of Jesus.

FOCUS: Jesus calls us to live in intentional and faithful discipleship.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls his first disciples by name. Their response is immediate and total – they leave everything behind and accept his invitation. We gather today to celebrate this Eucharist because we, too, have been called to follow Christ in intentional and faithful discipleship. Today we ponder that call and renew our response.

Eucharistic AdorationEvery Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday:

following the 12:10pm Mass-until 2pm

(No 12:10pm Mass or Adoration on Friday)

Every Thursday:

following the 12:10pm Mass-until 6pm

A Note from the Pastor

Fr. Jeff Yildirmaz

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

This week I continue to write to you about our Christian mission to serve those who are in need. One of the most impactful encounters in the Gospel for me is the story of the rich young man.

In this story, you have this rich young man seemingly doing everything right before God. However, he asks a very honest and vulnerable question to Jesus: "What is it that I am lacking?" And Jesus gives an honest answer. "If you wish to be perfect, go, sell your possessions, and give the money to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me."

The message of this passage is very clear. Jesus wants us to be generous to our neighbor. As he says in the Sermon on the Mount, Blessed are the poor in the spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of Heaven. Jesus tells us that earthly riches will not give us true happiness, even though the world may tell us otherwise.

My patron saint, St. Francis of Assisi, was one of these rich young men. His heart was so fixated on earthly things. In fact, he was the son of the richest man in his town. This desire started to change in his encounters with the poor. Eventually, St. Francis realized the presence of Jesus in each of these people that he encountered.

St. Francis clearly believed and embraced what Jesus has taught us. Furthermore, it is not simply following a commandment but doing so with love. Moreover, every encounter we have with those who are suffering is an encounter of Jesus: "Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me."

By giving yourself more to others this may cause a wear and tear on you. But this is not a bad thing. St. Mother Teresa of Calcutta says love until it hurts. This is the beautiful essence of sacrifice.

Pax et Bonum.

In Jesus and Mary

DID YOU NOTICE ANYTHING DIFFERENT IN THE CHURCH?

As you may have noticed the parish has purchased kneelers at the foot of the sanctuary. You are free to use these kneelers at any time. It is very fitting to use them for the reception of Holy Communion. Of course you can receive holy communion by the hand, but receiving Holy Communion kneeling by the mouth is an option. Allow me to offer you a mediation in receiving Holy Communion by this later option.

Imagine if you are at one of the many times Jesus walks through the crowds in the Gospels. Picture that you are amid the crowd, and you see Jesus coming towards you from a great distance. You cannot yet see His face, for He is too far but you know that it is Him.

He comes closer to you, and you begin to see the physical features of his face. Your heart is moved by this literally. As He approaches towards you, you kneel and your heart begins to pound intensely. You either silently speak to Him or boldly shout out towards Him and hope He hears and responds to you. At this point, the Lord acknowledges your presence either by looking right at you as He comes to you or speaks to you either verbally or silently into your soul.

Now the Lord has come to you face to face and His arms open and you embrace Him. What may have been for just a moment stays with you for the rest of your life. You have truly encountered the Living God of Jesus Christ.

As you may have noticed these kneelers are significantly wider. You can kneel shoulder to shoulder with the faithful. The Lord will come to you as you kneel and wait for Him just as He did for the crowd. Come, Lord Jesus!

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

Esta semana continúo escribiéndoles sobre nuestra misión cristiana de servir a los necesitados. Uno de los pasajes del Evangelio que más me impacta es la historia del joven rico.

En esta historia, vemos a un joven rico que aparentemente lo hacía todo bien ante los ojos de Dios. Sin embargo, le hace a Jesús una pregunta muy sincera y vulnerable: "¿Qué me falta todavía?". Y Jesús le da una respuesta honesta: "Si quieres ser perfecto, ve, vende tus posesiones y dáselo a los pobres, y tendrás un tesoro en el cielo; luego ven y sígueme".

El mensaje de este pasaje es muy claro: Jesús quiere que seamos generosos con nuestro prójimo. Como dice en el Sermón de la Montaña: Bienaventurados los pobres de espíritu, porque de ellos es el reino de los cielos. Jesús nos dice que las riquezas terrenales no nos darán la verdadera felicidad, aunque el mundo nos diga lo contrario.

Mi santo patrón, San Francisco de Asís, fue uno de estos jóvenes ricos. Su corazón estaba muy apegado a las cosas materiales. De hecho, era hijo del hombre más rico de su ciudad. Este deseo comenzó a cambiar en sus encuentros con los pobres. Con el tiempo, San Francisco se dio cuenta de la presencia de Jesús en cada una de las personas que encontraba.

San Francisco creyó firmemente y abrazó lo que Jesús nos enseñó. Además, no se trata simplemente de seguir un mandamiento, sino de hacerlo con amor. Más aún, cada encuentro que tenemos con quienes sufren es un encuentro con Jesús: "En verdad les digo que, en cuanto lo hicieron a uno de estos mis hermanos más pequeños, a mí me lo hicieron".

Entregarse a los demás puede causar desgaste. Pero esto no es algo malo. Santa Madre Teresa de Calcuta decía: "Ama hasta que duela". Esta es la hermosa esencia del sacrificio.

Pax et Bonum.

In Jesus and Mary,

La oficina parroquial permanecerá cerrada el lunes 19 de enero en conmemoración del Día del Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. No habrá misa de las 12:10 p. m. ni Adoración Eucarística ese día.

IGLESIA NECESITADA

El próximo fin de semana, 25 de enero, se realizará una colecta para la organización Iglesia Necesitada. Esta colecta especial apoya a la Iglesia en América Latina y el Caribe. Las donaciones ayudan a financiar la catequesis, la formación de seminaristas y los programas de matrimonio y vida familiar.

EQUIPO DE LIMPIEZA

¡Estamos buscando miembros de la parroquia que deseen donar su tiempo y energía para ayudarnos a mantener nuestra iglesia limpia! Si está interesado en ser voluntario para tareas de limpieza ligera, llame a la oficina parroquial al 516-825-1450.

¿HAN NOTADO ALGO DIFERENTE EN LA IGLESIA?

Como habrán notado, la parroquia ha adquirido reclinatorios al pie del santuario. Pueden usar estos reclinatorios cuando lo deseen. Es muy apropiado usarlos para recibir la Sagrada Comunión.

Por supuesto, pueden recibir la Sagrada Comunión en la mano, pero recibirla de rodillas y en la boca es una opción. Permítanme ofrecerles una meditación sobre la recepción de la Sagrada Comunión de esta última manera.

Imaginen que se encuentran en uno de los muchos momentos en que Jesús camina entre la multitud en los Evangelios. Imaginen que están en medio de la multitud y ven a Jesús acercándose desde la distancia. Aún no pueden ver su rostro, porque está demasiado lejos, pero saben que es Él.

Se acerca más a ustedes y comienzan a distinguir los rasgos de su rostro. Su corazón se conmueve profundamente. A medida que se acerca, se arrodillan y su corazón late con fuerza. Le hablan en silencio o le gritan con valentía, con la esperanza de que los escuche y les responda. En ese momento, el Señor reconoce su presencia, ya sea mirándolos directamente al acercarse o hablándoles, verbalmente o en silencio, a su alma.

Ahora el Señor ha llegado a ustedes cara a cara, abre sus brazos y lo abrazan. Lo que pudo haber sido solo un instante permanece con ustedes para el resto de sus vidas. Han encontrado verdaderamente al Dios vivo, Jesucristo.

Como habrán notado, estos reclinatorios son considerablemente más anchos. Pueden arrodillarse hombro con hombro con los demás fieles. El Señor vendrá a ustedes mientras se arrodillan y lo esperan, tal como lo hizo con la multitud. ¡Ven, Señor Jesús!

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle;
be our protection against the
wickedness and snares
of the devil. May God rebuke him,
we humbly pray; and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God, cast into hell
Satan and all the evil spirits
who prowl about the world
seeking the ruin of souls.
Amen.

San Miguel Arcángel,
defiéndenos en la batalla;
sé nuestra protección contra
la maldad y las asechanzas del demonio. Que Dios lo reprenda, te lo suplicamos humildemente;
y tú, oh Príncipe de las huestes celestiales, por el poder de Dios, arroja al infierno a Satanás y
a todos los espíritus malignos que andan por el mundo buscando
la perdición de las almas. Amén.
