Readings for 3rd Sunday of Lent
1st Reading: Exodus 17:3-7 Thirst drives the people against Moses and his authority.
2nd Reading: Romans 5:1-2, 5-8 Jesus dies for a world of sinners that cannot merit the gift they receive.
Gospel: John 4:5-42 or 4:5-15, 19b-26, 39a, 40-42
 Two kinds of thirst bring together a Samaritan woman and the Messiah she awaits.
FOCUS: We are invited to bring our thirst to God.
 In the sacred season of Lent, we are invited to acknowledge our thirst and our need for God. Let us not mask it or hide it with distractions or goods which cannot ultimately satisfy. We are invited instead to bring our thirst to God and, like the Samaritan woman, simply ask: Lord, give me this water, the water which will make us never thirst again.

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

Permit in this week's letter to discuss the first part of the Mass with you, the Liturgy of the Word. In the beginning of the Mass, we invoke the One True God, the Three Divine Persons of the Trinity and make the sign of our salvation. During most Masses there is the penitential rite, which involves a very brief examination of conscience which includes a short period of silence. This part of the Mass sets the stage for the Mass, in confessing to the Lord that we are sinners and imploring the mercy of God.

Following the penitential rite is the gloria. This is one of the most ancient parts of the Mass which originates from the Word of God. The gloria starts with the prayer of the angels that was first said on Christmas Day from the Gospel of Luke.

Then comes the opening prayer, aka, collect. This generally sets the tone for the Mass that is being offered. In general, the prayer is addressed to the Father through Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, hence every prayer to God invokes the Holy Trinity.

The readings of the Mass are part of the tradition of the Old Testament. God's chosen people would solemnly hear the word of God which was read to them by a rabbi at the synagogue or Temple. This tradition has been passed on to the Church.

The Old and New Testament readings are read with the psalm in the middle. The psalms are prayers written by King David. The psalms are one of the most beautiful prayers of our tradition. These prayers are Jewish in their origin. In fact, the Lord Jesus, His Mother and St. Joseph would pray them with great devotion. Many devout Jews of Jesus's time, up to the present day, know many of them by heart.

Lastly, when the Gospel of the Lord is proclaimed we all stand because Christ is speaking to us. There is a great reverence for the presence of God during this time at Mass. God is truly speaking to us through His Sacred Word.

Subscribing to a daily mass periodical such as the Magnificat, the Sunday Visitor etc. is a great way to be prepared for the readings of the Mass on Sunday and it could very well increase our reverence for the Lord's Day. These periodicals also include beautiful meditations and articles that can set the tone for the day. By reading the readings of the Sunday Mass earlier in the week, you reflect on them in prayer and see how God is speaking to you in them.

Pax et Bonum.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

All are invited!

I am happy to inform you that during the Sunday Masses of Lent, except for the 1:00 PM Mass in Spanish, I will be presenting a catechetical series on prayer. Each Sunday we will cover a certain subject on prayer.

The focus of this series will be, but not limited to:

- The identity of the Christian to the Holy Trinity.
- The purpose and tradition of prayer
- Cultivating practices of prayer
- Understanding the movements of God in prayer

Please feel free to bring a notepad or journal with you to Mass during these weeks. You may want to take notes as I am preaching.

I am greatly looking forward to preaching to you on prayer. Permit me to give you a sneak peek. What is the purpose of prayer? To be with God. To be with God in this life and in the life to come in Heaven.

Speaking of prayer, let us pray for our parish that is facing financial difficulty but more importantly let us pray for our parishioners especially those who are lacking in spiritual and temporal needs. With God all things are possible!

The St. Michael prayer will be said at the end of the Masses everyday including Sunday. This prayer is found in the back of the hymnal for your convenience and use. You can offer this prayer for the Universal Church. This prayer was written by Pope Leo XIII in a vision that he had while in prayer. Reciting this prayer after Mass is already the practice of many parishes across the Diocese and throughout the Universal Church.

Pax et Bonum.

Fr. Jeff

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

En la carta de esta semana, les propongo hablar sobre la primera parte de la Misa: la Liturgia de la Palabra.

Al comienzo de la Misa, invocamos al único Dios Verdadero, a las Tres Divinas Personas de la Trinidad, y hacemos la señal de nuestra salvación. En la mayoría de las Misas se realiza el rito penitencial, que consiste en un breve examen de conciencia con un breve período de silencio. Esta parte de la Misa prepara el terreno para la Misa, al confesar al Señor que somos pecadores e implorar la misericordia de Dios.

Después del rito penitencial se reza el Gloria. Esta es una de las partes más antiguas de la Misa, con origen en la Palabra de Dios. El Gloria comienza con la oración de los ángeles, que se rezó por primera vez el día de Navidad, según el Evangelio de Lucas.

Luego viene la oración colecta, que generalmente marca el tono de la Misa que se ofrece. En general, la oración se dirige al Padre por medio de Jesucristo, en la unidad del Espíritu Santo; por lo tanto, toda oración a Dios invoca a la Santísima Trinidad.

Las lecturas de la Misa forman parte de la tradición del Antiguo Testamento. El pueblo elegido de Dios escuchaba solemnemente la palabra de Dios, que les leía un rabino en la sinagoga o el templo. Esta tradición se ha transmitido a la Iglesia.

Las lecturas del Antiguo y del Nuevo Testamento se leen con el salmo en el centro. Los salmos son oraciones escritas por el rey David. Son una de las oraciones más hermosas de nuestra tradición. Estas oraciones son de origen judío. De hecho, el Señor Jesús, su Madre y San José las rezaban con gran devoción. Muchos judíos devotos de la época de Jesús, hasta nuestros días, se saben muchas de ellas de memoria.

Por último, cuando se proclama el Evangelio del Señor, todos nos ponemos de pie porque Cristo nos habla. Hay una gran reverencia por la presencia de Dios durante este tiempo en la Misa. Dios verdaderamente nos habla a través de su Sagrada Palabra.

Suscribirse a una publicación diaria de la misa, como el Magnificat, el Sunday Visitor, etc., es una excelente manera de prepararse para las lecturas de la Misa del domingo y podría aumentar nuestra reverencia por el Domingo del Señor. Estas publicaciones también incluyen hermosas meditaciones y artículos que pueden marcar el ritmo del día. Al leer las lecturas de la Misa dominical a principios de la semana, reflexionas sobre ellas en oración y ves cómo Dios te habla a través de ellas.

Pax et Bonum.

In Jesus and Mary,
