PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Next Sunday's Liturgy—Apr. 19

Readings for Third Sunday of Easter

1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 2:14, 22-33 David himself gives testimony about the Messiah from beyond the grave.

2nd Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-21 Our salvation is bought not with perishable gold but the blood of the Lamb.

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35 The disciples of Emmaus give the now-familiar testimony to an unusual stranger.

FOCUS: God raised Jesus; of this we are all witnesses. Perhaps we can identify with the two disciples who were on the road to Emmaus. They most likely felt despair and discouragement, but when Jesus revealed himself to them, that despair was turned into joy and they rushed to tell the other disciples. If we today continue to open ourselves to God's movement in our lives, we can feel that same joy and be energized to share the Good News with others.

Eucharistic Adoration

Every Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday:
following the 12:10pm Mass-until 2pm

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

I hoped and prayed that you had a blessed and graceful Holy Week and Easter Sunday.

As you may have already heard, due to financial difficulty, Holy Name of Mary Church is in contract to sell the former convent building and its parking lot. Upon approval from the Village of Valley Stream, the site will be developed with a new residential building. The parish will realize a minimum of $2.1 million from the sale, with the possibility of additional revenue depending upon the final number of housing units the village approves.

The sale of the property is an absolute necessity for the financial health of the parish. Holy Name of Mary Church has run significant operating deficits for almost a decade that are not sustainable into the future. The funds from this sale will place the parish in a stable financial position, essential for the parish's future.

It is never a happy day to sell Church property, especially a former convent that housed the Sisters of St. Joseph for decades. We thank the Sisters of St Joseph for their love for Christ and for our Parish community.

The building, however, has been empty for years as a residential living space and is in a state of disrepair. It is long past its useful life. The parish cannot afford to maintain it any longer. With big news as this, it is easy for rumors to spread. To be clear, there no plans to sell any other building. Parish operations will continue as normal.

Let us ask the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary as we pray for Holy Name of Mary Church, and for her spiritual and temporal needs. Pax et Bonum.

Adoration Schedule

Adoration of the Blessed the Sacrament from 12:45 PM - 6:00 PM on Thursday, is being moved to Mondays, beginning May 4th. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament on Thursdays will be from 12:45 PM to 2:00 PM, beginning May 7th.

Sunday Mass

Beginning with Easter Sunday, the 9:00 AM Mass will be a High Mass. There will be incense at this Mass in addition to special hymns being sung. For the month of Easter, the Regina Caeli Hymn will be sung in Latin after the final blessing.

Regina Caeli

Queen of Heaven, rejoice, alleluia
 For He whom you did merit to bear, alleluia
 Has risen, as he said, alleluia
 Pray for us to God, alleluia
 Rejoice and be glad, O Virgin Mary, alleluia
 For the Lord has truly risen, alleluia.

In Jesus and Mary,

Father Jeff Goldmann

With heartfelt thanks to our Clean Team, for keeping our Church clean, and to those who beautifully decorated the Sanctuary for Easter.

We are truly grateful.

Don't just celebrate Easter. Step into it.

At the heart of Christianity is not just an idea or a rule of life, but an encounter with the Risen Christ and the new life of grace He offers. Easter invites us to step into that life more deliberately. Here are four simple ways to begin:

Encounter the Risen Christ. Mary Magdalene stood before Jesus and didn't recognize Him until He spoke her name (John 20:16), and her grief became joy. That encounter is possible for us. Come to Mass with intention. Don't just attend—arrive expecting to meet Him. Listen closely, pray honestly, and remember that in the Eucharist, Christ is truly present.

Practical step: Before Mass, pray, "Jesus, help me recognize You today."

Take an "Emmaus walk." Two disciples left Jerusalem discouraged, and Jesus met them on the road. He helped them to see God's faithfulness in their lives. He can do the same for you. Take time this Easter season for a quiet walk with Him. Speak openly about what's on your heart, and listen for His voice.

Practical step: Ask, "Lord, where have You been at work in my life that I haven't seen?"

Choose mercy. Jesus gave His Apostles the power to forgive sins (John 20:21-23), ensuring His mercy would always be available. We're called to receive it— and extend it. Forgive, hold back harsh words, and choose patience.

Practical step: Identify one situation where you can offer a concrete act of mercy this week.

Be open to mission. The Resurrection sends us out. God still calls ordinary people for His work. Your mission may be simple: show patience, reach out, or step up where needed.

Practical step: Ask, "Where am I being nudged to act?" Then take one small step.

Easter isn't just celebrated—it's lived, one step at a time.

After Lent, the work begins

Pope Leo XIV described Lent as a time to “place the mystery of God back in the center of our lives.” Yet the growth in holiness and renewal of faith that begins in Lent is meant to continue well beyond the season.

Keep custody of the heart. To guard the heart is to protect it from whatever disrupts our relationship with God. It means “allowing the word of God to touch our hearts and welcoming it with a docile spirit.” The habits formed during Lent can help sustain this: a daily Morning Offering, reading the Gospel, or setting aside time to visit the Blessed Sacrament. A healthy spiritual life depends on staying connected to the God who loves us most.

Keep custody of the tongue. This is a form of fasting that lasts all year. Pope Leo urges us to “disarm our language,” avoiding harsh words and rash judgment. Refusing gossip and slander is an act of self-denial. Instead, we are called to measure our words and practice kindness and respect. This simple discipline can bring new life not only to our own hearts, but to those around us.

Keep custody of your time. What we give our time to shapes who we become. It’s easy to let our days fill with noise, distraction, and busyness that leave little room for God. Be intentional about how you spend your time. Protect moments for prayer, rest, and what truly matters—your family, your vocation, your relationship with the Lord. Even small choices, repeated daily, create space for grace to grow.

John 10:1-10, The Good Shepherd seeks us

In this passage, Jesus uses the image of a shepherd to reveal who He is, how He cares for us, and how He invites us to respond. But why a shepherd?

In Jesus’ time, shepherding was a demanding and often dangerous way of life. A good shepherd knew each sheep personally and remained constantly with the flock. Many sheepfolds had no gates; at night, the shepherd would lie across the entrance, becoming the barrier that protected the sheep from danger. If a sheep was lost, injured, or attacked, the shepherd would go after it, tending to its wounds and, if necessary, risking his own life.

The meaning is clear. Without the steady care, guidance, and protection of the shepherd, the sheep would not survive. In the same way, we depend on God. Jesus, our Good Shepherd, knows each of us by name. He does not abandon us. He seeks us out when we are lost, heals us when we are wounded, provides for our needs, and protects us—even to the point of laying down His life.

In response, He asks for our trust, so that He may lead us safely home.

Q & A Why Do Catholics eat bacon on St. Mark’s feast day?

The Feast of St. Mark the Evangelist (April 25) has become, for many Catholics, a fitting day to enjoy bacon. The Church has a long tradition of honoring saints through liturgical celebrations, local customs, and even particular foods—practices that help preserve our shared spiritual heritage and remember their heroic witness.

In 828, Venetian merchants transferred the relics of St. Mark from Alexandria, Egypt, to Venice, Italy. To pass safely through Muslim-controlled ports, they hid the relics beneath layers of pork, a meat considered unclean under Islamic law. According to tradition, port officials, repelled by the cargo, chose not to inspect it closely, allowing the relics to reach Venice safely, where they remain today. In remembrance of this event, some Catholics mark his feast day—or the anniversary of the relics’ arrival on January 31—by eating pork.

Honoring a saint’s relics is a tangible expression of reverence, much like placing flowers on the graves of fallen soldiers. It reflects respect for their lives, their witness, and their service to God. Ultimately, in honoring the saints, we honor the God who formed them.

Feasts & Celebrations

April 2 – Holy Thursday. Today, we celebrate Jesus’ institution of the Holy Eucharist and the Priesthood to perpetuate it. Today, we celebrate He who remains really present to us in the Blessed Sacrament. Pray for priests.

April 12 – Divine Mercy Sunday. In 1931, Jesus appeared to St. Faustina and asked that the Sunday after Easter become the “Feast of Mercy.” Jesus promised special graces to those who honor Him as the King of Mercy and pray The Chaplet of Divine Mercy.

April 17 – St. Stephen Harding (1134). St. Stephen and two companions founded the Cistercian religious order in Citeaux. As abbot, he guided the community through many hardships. St. Bernard of Clairvaux and several companions joined him and revived the order. St. Stephen founded twelve more religious communities throughout France.

April 20 – St. Agnes of Montepulciano (1317). At a young age, she begged her parents to let her enter the Franciscans. When she was thirteen, the pope asked her to found a monastery at Proceno. Inspired by a vision, she founded a Dominican order at Montepulciano.

April 30 – Pope St. Pius V (1572). Born to a poor family in Italy, Antonio Ghislieri became a Dominican, taught theology, and became Pope Pius V. As Pope, he established seminaries and hospitals, and published the Roman Catechism, Roman Breviary, and the Missal. He promoted the praying of the Rosary for the victory of Christian forces at the Battle of Lepanto (1571). He is also known for efforts to implement the Council of Trent.

Holy Name of Mary's Hispanic Community held their annual procession around the Church on Good Friday, recreating the journey to Calvary through the Stations of the Cross. Thank you to all our parishioners who participated in this event and to Mayor Fare for closing the streets around the Church to allow for this beautiful procession to take place.

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

Esperaba y rezaba para que hubieran tenido una Semana Santa y un Domingo de Pascua llenos de bendiciones y gracia.

Como tal vez ya hayan escuchado, debido a dificultades financieras, la Iglesia del Santo Nombre de María ha firmado un contrato para vender el antiguo edificio del convento y su estacionamiento. Una vez obtenida la aprobación de la Villa de Valley Stream, el sitio será urbanizado para construir un nuevo edificio residencial. La parroquia obtendrá un mínimo de 2.1 millones de dólares de esta venta, con la posibilidad de recibir ingresos adicionales dependiendo del número final de unidades de vivienda que apruebe la villa.

La venta de esta propiedad es una necesidad absoluta para la salud financiera de la parroquia. La Iglesia del Santo Nombre de María ha incurrido en déficits operativos significativos durante casi una década, los cuales resultan insostenibles a largo plazo. Los fondos provenientes de esta venta colocarán a la parroquia en una posición financiera estable, algo esencial para su futuro.

Nunca es un día feliz aquel en el que se vende una propiedad de la Iglesia, especialmente un antiguo convento que albergó a las Hermanas de San José durante décadas. Agradecemos a las Hermanas de San José por su amor a Cristo y a nuestra comunidad parroquial.

Sin embargo, el edificio ha permanecido vacío como espacio residencial durante años y se encuentra en un estado de deterioro. Su vida útil ha concluido hace mucho tiempo, y la parroquia ya no puede permitirse el lujo de mantenerlo. Ante una noticia de tal magnitud, es fácil que surjan rumores. Para que quede claro: no existen planes para vender ningún otro edificio. Las actividades parroquiales continuarán con total normalidad.

Pidamos la intercesión de la Santísima Virgen María mientras rezamos por la Iglesia del Santo Nombre de María y por sus necesidades espirituales y materiales. Pax et Bonum.

Horario de Adoración

La Adoración al Santísimo Sacramento, que actualmente se celebra los jueves de 12:45 p. m. a 6:00 p. m., se trasladará a los lunes a partir del 4 de mayo. A partir del 7 de mayo, la Adoración al Santísimo Sacramento de los jueves se llevará a cabo de 12:45 p. m. a 2:00 p. m.

Misa Dominical

A partir del Domingo de Pascua, la Misa de las 9:00 a. m. será una Misa Solemne (High Mass). En esta Misa se utilizará incienso y se interpretarán himnos especiales. Durante el tiempo pascual, se cantará el himno Regina Caeli en latín después de la bendición final.

Regina Caeli

Reina del Cielo, alégrate, aleluya
 Porque Aquel a quien mereciste llevar, aleluya
 Ha resucitado, como dijo, aleluya
 Ruega por nosotros a Dios, aleluya
 Alégrate y regocíjate, oh Virgen María, aleluya
 Porque el Señor ha resucitado verdaderamente, aleluya.

Mensaje de San Vicente de Paúl

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús se sitúa en medio de nosotros y dice: “¡La paz esté con ustedes!”. Durante la Misa, nos volvemos unos hacia otros y decimos: “¡La paz esté con ustedes!”. Al depositar su ofrenda en la urna de San Vicente de Paúl, ustedes dicen: “¡La paz esté con ustedes!” a aquellos que son pobres y tienen hambre.
