

GospelJohn 20:1-9*

On the first day of the week,
Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning,
while it was still dark,
and saw the stone removed from the tomb.
So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, “They have taken the Lord from the tomb,
and we don’t know where they put Him.”
So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb.
They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first;
he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in.
When Simon Peter arrived after him,
he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there,
and the cloth that had covered His head,
not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.
Then the other disciple also went in,
the one who had arrived at the tomb first,
and he saw and believed.
For they did not yet understand the Scripture that He had to rise from the dead.

Easter 2026

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

Happy Easter to you and your families!

This Easter Sunday, Easter Octave, Divine Mercy Sunday and Easter Season we continue to pray and contemplate our Lord's Resurrection appearances, and we give thanks for Pope Leo XIV and his worldwide spirit of Catholic mission.

In his Cycle of Catechesis on the Resurrection of Christ, Pope Leo writes: "The Resurrection of Jesus Christ is an event that one never finishes contemplating and meditating on, and the more one explores it, the more one is filled with wonder, drawn in as if by an overwhelming yet fascinating light. It was an explosion of life and joy that changed the meaning of reality itself, from negative to positive; yet it did not happen in a striking way, much less a violent one, but gently, hidden, one might say humbly." (October 22, 2025 Audience)

Pope Leo recognizes that there is much sadness in the world – "a feeling of precariousness, at times profound desperation." We think especially of the daily crosses and trials of those from war-torn and violence-ridden areas of the world.

The Holy Father then reflects on the despair of the two disciples on the Road to Emmaus. Their hearts burn and their joy is restored as the Risen Lord explains the Scriptures to them and they recognize Him in the breaking of the bread. In this way, the Paschal Mystery gives us hope and strength in every trial and circumstance.

Pope Leo concludes: "May the unexpected joy of the disciples of Emmaus be a gentle reminder to us when the going gets tough. It is the Risen One who radically changes our perspective, instilling the hope that fills the void of sadness. On the paths of the heart, the Risen One walks with us and for us. He bears witness to the defeat of death and affirms the victory of life, despite the darkness of Calvary... He alone makes the impossible possible!"

May the Light of the Risen Christ illumine our path to holiness on earth and our path to eternal life and happiness with God in Heaven.

Sincerely yours in the Risen Lord,

Most Reverend John O. Barres
Bishop of Rockville Centre

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

Happy Easter! The Lord is Risen!

For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead (John 20:9). This passage is the Gospel from today's Mass in reference to Peter and John arriving at the empty tomb. Although we celebrate Easter Sunday every year, we don't quite fully understand the meaning of the Resurrection of Jesus Christ. The Paschal Mystery, The Passion, Death and Resurrection of Christ, can never be fully contemplated. This Mystery is the heart of our belief in what Jesus has done for us. Surely, this does not stop us from experiencing it in our own personal life.

Every Christian has felt the Passion of Jesus to some extent in one own's suffering. We have also felt the joy of the Resurrection in our own blessings that God has given us. As Christians we have the hope that our burdens, troubles, and worries are only for a passing time. And what awaits us is to be with God forever in Heaven.

There is nothing else like Easter Sunday morning. I am sure many souls will have conversions on this day. Throughout the world, people who haven't been practicing their faith will begin today after encountering Jesus in Holy Mass.

Today we have witnessed that Jesus Christ has conquered sin and death with His loving Sacrifice and Resurrection. I am convinced that nothing can separate us from the love of God (Romans 8:35).

On behalf of the priests of the parish, please know of our prayers for you during the Season of Easter. Happy Easter!

Pax et Bonum.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Pascua 2026

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

¡Feliz Pascua a ustedes y a sus familias!

En este Domingo de Pascua, durante la Octava de Pascua, el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia y todo el Tiempo Pascual, continuamos orando y contemplando las apariciones del Señor Resucitado, y damos gracias por el Papa León XIV y su espíritu universal de misión católica.

En su ciclo de catequesis sobre la Resurrección de Cristo, el Papa León escribe: “La Resurrección de Jesucristo es un acontecimiento que nunca se termina de contemplar y meditar; y cuanto más se profundiza en él, más se llena uno de asombro, como atraído por una luz abrumadora y a la vez fascinante. Fue una explosión de vida y de alegría que cambió el sentido mismo de la realidad, de negativo a positivo; sin embargo, no ocurrió de manera llamativa, y mucho menos violenta, sino suavemente, de modo oculto, podríamos decir humildemente.” (Audiencia del 22 de octubre de 2025)

El Papa León reconoce que hay mucha tristeza en el mundo: “una sensación de precariedad, a veces de profunda desesperación”. Pensamos especialmente en las cruces y pruebas cotidianas de quienes viven en regiones del mundo marcadas por la guerra y la violencia.

El Santo Padre reflexiona luego sobre la desesperanza de los dos discípulos en el camino de Emaús. Sus corazones arden y su alegría es restaurada cuando el Señor Resucitado les explica las Escrituras y lo reconocen al partir el pan. De este modo, el Misterio Pascual nos da esperanza y fortaleza en toda prueba y circunstancia.

El Papa León concluye: “Que la alegría inesperada de los discípulos de Emaús sea para nosotros un suave recordatorio cuando el camino se hace difícil. Es el Resucitado quien cambia radicalmente nuestra perspectiva, infundiendo la esperanza que llena el vacío de la tristeza. En los caminos del corazón, el Resucitado camina con nosotros y por nosotros. Él da testimonio de la derrota de la muerte y afirma la victoria de la vida, a pesar de la oscuridad del Calvario... ¡Solo Él hace posible lo imposible!”

Que la Luz de Cristo Resucitado ilumine nuestro camino de santidad en la tierra y nuestro camino hacia la vida eterna y la felicidad con Dios en el Cielo.

Sinceramente suyo en el Señor Resucitado,

Reverendísimo John O. Barres
Obispo de Rockville Centre

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

¡Felices Pascuas! ¡El Señor ha resucitado!

Pues aún no habían comprendido la Escritura: que Él debía resucitar de entre los muertos (Juan 20:9). Este pasaje constituye el Evangelio de la Misa de hoy, haciendo referencia a la llegada de Pedro y Juan a la tumba vacía. Aunque celebramos el Domingo de Pascua cada año, no llegamos a comprender plenamente el significado de la Resurrección de Jesucristo. El Misterio Pascual —la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección de Cristo— nunca podrá ser contemplado en su totalidad. Este Misterio es el corazón de nuestra fe en lo que Jesús ha hecho por nosotros. Ciertamente, esto no nos impide experimentarlo en nuestra propia vida personal.

Todo cristiano ha sentido la Pasión de Jesús, en cierta medida, a través de su propio sufrimiento. También hemos sentido la alegría de la Resurrección en las bendiciones que Dios nos ha concedido. Como cristianos, albergamos la esperanza de que nuestras cargas, tribulaciones y preocupaciones son solo pasajeras. Y lo que nos aguarda es estar con Dios para siempre en el Cielo.

No hay nada comparable a la mañana del Domingo de Pascua. Estoy seguro de que muchas almas experimentarán una conversión en este día. En todo el mundo, personas que se habían alejado de la práctica de su fe la retomarán hoy, tras encontrarse con Jesús en la Santa Misa.

Hoy hemos sido testigos de que Jesucristo ha vencido al pecado y a la muerte mediante su amoroso Sacrificio y su Resurrección. Estoy convencido de que nada podrá separarnos del amor de Dios (Romanos 8:35).

En nombre de los sacerdotes de la parroquia, sepan que los tenemos presentes en nuestras oraciones durante este Tiempo Pascual. ¡Felices Pascuas!

Pax et Bonum.
