1st Reading: Acts of the Apostles 2:1-11 The anticipated Spirit arrives—transforms the disciples into apostles.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13 The Spirit is given to each member in accordance with his/her call.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

We are now in an 'in between' period in the Church year. The time between the Ascension of the Lord and Pentecost Sunday is a precious time of the Church year. Historically, the apostles were in deep prayer during this time. As instructed by the Lord, they stayed in Jerusalem prayerfully waiting for the Holy Spirit to come upon them. This, in many ways, is the first novena of the Church, 9 consecutive days of praying for a particular intention.

It is a joyful grace when God answers our prayers especially the answer we were looking for. For such a moment, it is only natural to give thanks to God when this happens and to trust Him even more.

However, it may so happen that God does not seem to answer our prayers or give an answer that we didn't intend. Such an occasion is an opportunity for a deep increase of faith. By doing so, without the soul realizing it, one's love for God increases substantially. Sometimes all that we have left to hold on to is our faith.

Perhaps for the apostles, they didn't know what to expect when they were waiting for the Holy Spirit to come upon them. Jesus's message to the apostles during His Last Supper Discourse (John 14-16) about the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, seems to be very mysterious and obscure. I will ask the Father and, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always, the Spirit of truth which the world cannot accept, because it neither sees nor knows it. But you know it, because it remains with you (John 14:16-17). Just as important, Jesus is consoling his disciples and telling them that He will be united with them.

In this time of waiting, the apostles must have had so many questions. So many things that they wanted to understand and have clarity. Jesus helped them to grow in humility as He helps us too. It is not up to us to understand and control everything. Rather, Christ wants us to simply trust Him even more and completely be dependent upon Him and worry about nothing.

We have our whole life to grow in our absolute faith in God in all things. This time of the Church year is a great reminder of that truth.

Pax et Bonum.

May is the Month Dedicated to Our Lady

Saint John Vianney, better known as the Cure of Ars, when asked how long he had loved Mary, said: "I loved her almost before I could know her." In this prayer he expresses that love.

O thou most holy virgin Mary, who dost evermore stand before the most holy Trinity, and to whom it is granted at all times to pray for us to thy most beloved Son; pray for me in all my necessities; help me, combat for me, and obtain for me the pardon of all my sins. Help me especially at my last hour; and when I can no longer give any sign of the use of reason, then do thou encourage me, make the sign of the cross for me, and fight for me against the enemy. Make in my name a profession of faith; favor me with a testimony of my salvation, and never let me despair of the mercy of God. Help me to overthrow the wicked enemy. When I can no longer say: "Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, I place my soul in your hands," do thou say it for me; when I can no longer hear human words of consolation, do thou comfort me. Leave me not before I have been judged; and if I have to expiate my sins in purgatory, oh! pray for me earnestly; and admonish my friends to procure for me a speedy enjoyment of the blessed sight of God. Lessen my sufferings, deliver me speedily, and lead my soul into heaven with thee: that, united with all the elect, I may there bless and praise my God and thee for all eternity. Amen. —Saint John Vianney

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

Nos encontramos ahora en un periodo de «transición» dentro del año litúrgico. El tiempo que transcurre entre la Ascensión del Señor y el Domingo de Pentecostés es un momento precioso del año de la Iglesia. Históricamente, los apóstoles se entregaron a una profunda oración durante este periodo. Tal como les había instruido el Señor, permanecieron en Jerusalén, aguardando en oración la venida del Espíritu Santo sobre ellos. Esto constituye, en muchos sentidos, la primera novena de la Iglesia: nueve días consecutivos de oración por una intención particular.

Es una gracia gozosa cuando Dios responde a nuestras oraciones, especialmente cuando nos concede la respuesta que esperábamos. Ante un momento así, resulta natural dar gracias a Dios cuando esto sucede y confiar aún más en Él.

Sin embargo, puede ocurrir que Dios no parezca responder a nuestras oraciones, o que nos dé una respuesta distinta a la que habíamos previsto. Tal circunstancia se convierte en una oportunidad para un profundo crecimiento en la fe. Al hacerlo —y sin que el alma apenas se percate—, el amor hacia Dios aumenta sustancialmente. A veces, lo único que nos queda a lo que aferrarnos es nuestra fe.

Quizás los apóstoles no sabían qué esperar mientras aguardaban la venida del Espíritu Santo sobre ellos. El mensaje que Jesús dirigió a los apóstoles durante su Discurso de la Última Cena (Juan 14-16) —referente al Paráclito, el Espíritu Santo— parece revestir un carácter sumamente misterioso y enigmático: «Yo rogaré al Padre y Él os dará otro Paráclito para que esté siempre con vosotros: el Espíritu de la verdad, a quien el mundo no puede recibir porque no lo ve ni lo conoce; vosotros, en cambio, lo conocéis, porque permanece con vosotros» (Juan 14:16-17). Y, lo que resulta igualmente importante: Jesús consuela a sus discípulos, asegurándoles que permanecerá unido a ellos.

Durante este tiempo de espera, los apóstoles debieron de tener innumerables interrogantes; tantas cosas que deseaban comprender y sobre las cuales anhelaban obtener claridad. Jesús les ayudó a crecer en humildad, del mismo modo que nos ayuda también a nosotros. No nos corresponde a nosotros comprenderlo y controlarlo todo; por el contrario, Cristo desea que simplemente confiemos aún más en Él, que dependamos de Él por completo y que no nos inquietemos por nada.

Tenemos toda una vida por delante para crecer en una fe absoluta en Dios, en todas las circunstancias. Este tiempo del año litúrgico es un gran recordatorio de esa verdad.

Pax et Bonum.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Jeff Yildirmaz
