

Gospel

John 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him might not perish
but might have eternal life.

For God did not send His Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through Him.

Whoever believes in Him will not be condemned,
but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

Blessed be the Holy Name of Mary!

Ordinary time has returned! As it is always the case, when we return to Ordinary Time there are great days ahead of us. We celebrate today Trinity Sunday, the following week is Corpus Christi Sunday, followed by the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus on the next Friday.

One of these great days is on June 20th. On this day, Bishop John Barres will ordain three young priests for our Diocese. As you know the Church in our diocese and our country greatly needs priests. Our part is to welcome our brothers in Christ to freely consider such a great vocation and to pray intensely for vocations. Vocations to the priesthood begin with the family (the domestic church) where many priests have been formed. The parish plays a great part in that role.

I thank especially our parishioners who not only pray for the men discerning priesthood but also for praying for the priests in our Diocese. This is greatly evident in the Prayer for Priests events we have had throughout the year at Holy Name of Mary Parish.

How and when a vocation will spark in a soul is always unique and precious. In such a wonderful way, so many vocations have been sparked in the confessional. The late Pope Francis' own vocation to the priesthood was sparked when he was led to the confessional. Through God's grace, he was walking with his friends in the city of Buenos Aires, and he couldn't help but enter the Cathedral and go immediately to the confessional. It was there the call to the priesthood first came to him.

A close friend of mine, in his youth, was resisting a vocation to the priesthood. Several people encouraged him to consider it, but he resisted. One day he heard a priest give a talk on the theology of the body, which touched his soul deeply. He went to confession to the priest and after he confessed his sins the priest asked him: "Have you ever thought of being a priest?" For the first time, he didn't resist it. Finally, his heart was open to it. Years later he was ordained a priest for our diocese.

Lord give us priests. Lord give us holy priests.

Pax et Bonum.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

St. Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle; be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Readings for Corpus Christi

1st Reading: Deuteronomy 8:2-3, 14b-16a In his final discourse Moses reminds people of God's sustaining word.

2nd Reading: 1 Corinthians 10:16-17 Our mystical communion with Christ gives us a share in his blessing and brokenness.

Gospel: John 6:51-58 Just as Jesus shares in the life of his Father, he also lives in us who eat and drink here.

FOCUS: In the Eucharist, the Lord nurtures our souls and makes us one with him.

Today, on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, we profess what we believe and celebrate at every Mass: The simple, ordinary gifts of bread and wine are transformed, by the power of the Holy Spirit, into our Lord's Real Presence. When we partake of the Eucharist, Jesus remains with us. Let us pray that we may be more aware of this presence so we can proclaim this truth to others.

Eucharistic Adoration

Every Monday:

following the 12:10pm Mass-until 6pm

Every Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday:

following the 12:10pm Mass-until 2pm

(No 12:10pm Mass or Adoration on Friday)

Confessions: Mon-Thurs, 12:45pm-1:15pm; Saturdays, 3:30-4:30pm; Sundays, 10:15-10:45am. Confessions in Spanish: Sundays, 12-12:45pm

May is the Month Dedicated to Our Lady

Hail, holy Queen, Mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn, then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this, our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary.

V. Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray. Almighty and everlasting God, Who by the working of the Holy Spirit didst prepare both body and soul of the glorious Virgin Mother, Mary, that she might deserve to be made a worthy dwelling for Thy Son, grant that we who rejoice in her memory, may, by her loving intercession, be delivered from present evils and from lasting death, through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

¡Bendito sea el Santo Nombre de María!

¡Ha regresado el Tiempo Ordinario! Como siempre sucede, al volver al Tiempo Ordinario nos esperan días grandiosos. Hoy celebramos el Domingo de la Santísima Trinidad; la semana siguiente es el Domingo de Corpus Christi, seguido por la Solemnidad del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús el viernes siguiente.

Uno de estos días grandiosos será el 20 de junio. En esta fecha, el Obispo John Barres ordenará a tres jóvenes sacerdotes para nuestra Diócesis. Como bien saben, la Iglesia —tanto en nuestra diócesis como en nuestro país— tiene una gran necesidad de sacerdotes. Nuestra labor consiste en acoger a nuestros hermanos en Cristo para que consideren libremente tan sublime vocación, y en rezar intensamente por las vocaciones. Las vocaciones al sacerdocio nacen en el seno de la familia (la Iglesia doméstica), donde tantos sacerdotes han sido formados. La parroquia desempeña un papel fundamental en este proceso.

Agradezco de manera especial a nuestros feligreses, quienes no solo rezan por aquellos hombres que se encuentran en discernimiento vocacional hacia el sacerdocio, sino también por los sacerdotes que sirven en nuestra Diócesis. Esto se hace sumamente evidente en los eventos de Oración por los Sacerdotes que hemos celebrado a lo largo del año en la Parroquia del Santo Nombre de María.

El modo y el momento en que una vocación despierta en el alma son siempre únicos y preciosos. De una manera verdaderamente maravillosa, muchas vocaciones han surgido precisamente en el confesionario. La propia vocación sacerdotal del actual Papa Francisco despertó en el momento en que se sintió impulsado a entrar en un confesionario. Por gracia de Dios, mientras caminaba con unos amigos por la ciudad de Buenos Aires, sintió un impulso irresistible de entrar en la Catedral y dirigirse de inmediato al confesionario. Fue allí donde escuchó por primera vez el llamado al sacerdocio.

Un amigo cercano mío, durante su juventud, se resistía a aceptar una vocación al sacerdocio. Varias personas lo animaron a considerarla, pero él se negaba. Un día, escuchó a un sacerdote impartir una charla sobre la teología del cuerpo, la cual conmovió profundamente su alma. Acudió a confesarse con aquel sacerdote y, tras confesar sus pecados, este le preguntó: “¿Alguna vez has pensado en ser sacerdote?”. Por primera vez, mi amigo no opuso resistencia; finalmente, su corazón se abrió a esa posibilidad. Años más tarde, fue ordenado sacerdote para nuestra diócesis.

Señor, danos sacerdotes. Señor, danos sacerdotes santos.

Pax et Bonum.

In Jesus and Mary,

Fr. Jeff Yildirmaz
